Declaration

I have read, understood and agreed to the contents of this application form. It is understood that all required documents form part of the Admission to the School and the statutory registration with the Ministry of Education/KHDA; and that documents additionally required, not accompanying this Application Form, must be given to the Admissions Office as soon as possible.

I am aware that I will not be able to select a preferred teacher for my child. New students are allocated to classes according to TSPS policies.
